DAY 2 – TRADITIONAL TRADE OPEN DAY

- (08:00 – 14:00) getting to know a trade: together with your local host you will dive into one of the trades of the region (more information on trades)² to get to know the proceedings, the traders life-style, the tools, the products and some hideaways close to their working places. Traders will open their doors to work hand by hand with you during the day ending up tasting the products of the trade if it involves edible products. Groups will be maximum 8 people and will tend to be 4 people to foster true interaction.

¹¹ All schedules will vary depending on the season you visit us trying to match the best hours of light and temperature.

² Open days may focus on different trades (collection of the cherries during the springtime; shepherding of sheep and goats; feeding and grooming 68 German and Irish horses; preparing some of the most delicious preserved food dishes of the region, etc.) that will be arranged for you depending on the season of the year (more information on trades).
