

Visits to the the Bros family guitar-making workshop will be hold whenever we reach the minimum number of 10 guests per group if the Luthier is available

ITINERARY

- Prepack: we will send you an email with a map and basic instructions on how to get to the starting point
- 0 – 15 min: welcome at the starting point, by Adam, a grandson of the founder of the family luthier business that keeps the artisanal tradition of guitar making. Adam will brief you on how the visit will be organised that day.
- 15min – 1h: visit and explanation of the lutier art, Adam will show you the different steps undertaken for guitar making, and depending on the specific phase of the process, he will invite you to join and do some of the tasks they will be doing. During the visit you will meet his father, the family member with the master artisan condition, focused on some of the parts of the guitar he will be making at that moment.
- 1h – 1h30min: guitar show, during the last part of the visit Adam will show you the different type of guitars they create in their workshop. Those knowing how to play would have the chance to test how guitars sound.
