

Tasting is organised every Wednesday in two rounds starting whether at 4:45 or at 7:00 pm and finishing up at 7:00 or at 9:25 pm

ITINERARY

- Prepack: we will send you an email with a map and basic instructions on how to get to the starting point
- 0-15 min: welcome at the starting point, a host will welcome and provide you with some explanations on what is tasting about and the history of the place you are meeting.
- 15-45 min: stroll to the vegetable garden of Andreu, together with your host you will walk down to the house of Andreu. In the way, your host will tell you about some stories of the village, its history and its landscape. The stroll is about 1 km length and in the way you can spot former windmills, the remains of unspoiled original local forests and even Roman ovens.
- 45 min-1 h: Andreu's introduction. Andreu will introduce himself and his vegetable gardens from where you will enjoy the astonishing views and the knowledge and stories he knows about the village and organic agricultura.
- 1h – 1h30min: stroll in the vegetable garden, Andreu will explain you his plots and plants, showing you some rare ones (like the peanut plants which is a typical crop in the area) and explaining you some tasks you may want to do with the tomato plants. He will also help you grab the tomatoes you will taste afterwards.
- 1h30 min – 2h: tomato tasting, you will taste the tomatoes in the very place where they are grown together with some other veggies you may have been able to grab from his vegetable gardens. During the tasting we will show you some special local recipes and presentations we bet you have never cook before.
- 2h – 2h15min: stroll back to the starting point, you will continue the circular path, without the host this time, towards the starting point where you would have park your cars. The stroll is about 1 km length, ascendant this time, and you will be able to see a former Arab settlement and well and numerous vegetable gardens from the neighbours (there is even one where one of the neighbours spends the summer sitting for selling his own production to the pass byers).
